To Protect Your Constitutional Rights In The Following Situations:

- ◆ If you are read the Miranda warning or are accused of or charged with a criminal offense, or
- ◆ If you have discharged your firearm or a person in your custody has sustained an injury as a result of your actions, or
- ◆ If you are ordered by IAD or a supervisor to make a statement or
- ◆ If you receive a lawsuit by personal delivery or mail, whether specifically naming you as a party or not,

The Austin Police Association instructs that you do the following:

1. Contact APA's Attorney Tom Stribling 495-9111
2. IMMEDIATELY contact APA's CLEAT Hotline
24 Hour Legal Assistance Number: 1-800-752-5328
3. DO NOT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES talk about your case with anyone, including your partners, superiors, or friends, unless advised to do so by your attorney.
4. When compelled to make a written statement without the benefit of legal assistance, write at the beginning of your statement:
"This statement is being made only as result of a command by my supervisor to do so and is not a voluntary act on my part."

Then add the

CLEAT Constitutional Protections Statement

On _____ (date), at _____ (time), at _____ (place), I was ordered to submit this report (give this statement) by _____ (name & rank). I submit this report (give this statement) at their order as a condition of employment. In view of possible job forfeiture, I have no alternative but to abide by this order. It is my belief and understanding that the department requires this report (statement) solely and exclusively for internal purposes and will not release it to any other agency or authority except as is required by law. It is my further belief that this report (statement) will not and cannot be used against me in any subsequent proceeding other than disciplinary proceedings within the confines of the department itself.

For any and all other purposes, I hereby reserve my constitutional right to remain silent under the FIFTH and FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS to the UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION and other rights prescribed by law. Further, I rely specifically upon the protection afforded to me under the doctrines set forth in Garrity vs. New Jersey, 385 US 493 (1967), Spevak vs. Klein, 385 US 511 (1967), and Gardner vs. Broderick, 392 US 273 (1968), should this report (statement) be used for any other purpose of whatsoever kind or description.”

(Word the above verbatim at the end of your statement)

Police Officer’s Bill of Rights Texas Local Government Code

143.312 Investigation of Police Officers

- (a) This section does not apply to a municipality to which section 143.123 applies. (M population of 1.1 million or more.)
- (b) In this section:
1. “Complainant” means a person claiming to be the victim of misconduct by a police officer.
 2. “Investigation” means an administrative investigation, conducted by the municipality, of alleged misconduct by a police officer that could result in punitive action against that person.
 3. “Investigator” means an agent or employee of the municipality who is assigned to conduct an investigation.
 4. “Normally assigned working hours” includes those hours during which a police officer is actually at work or at the person’s assigned place of work, but does not include any time when the person is off duty on authorized leave, including sick leave.
 5. “Punitive action” means a disciplinary suspension, indefinite suspension, demotion in rank, written reprimand, or any combination of those actions.
- (c) An investigator may interrogate a police officer who is the subject of an investigation only during the police officer’s normally assigned working hours unless:
1. the seriousness of the investigation, as determined by the police officer’s department head or the department head's designee, requires interrogation at another time; and

2. the police officer is compensated for the interrogation time on an overtime basis.
- (d) The department head may not consider work time missed from regular duties by a police officer due to participation in the conduct of an investigation in determining whether to impose a punitive action or in determining the severity of a punitive action.
- (e) An investigator may not interrogate a police officer who is the subject of an investigation or conduct any part of the investigation at that person's home without that person's permission.
- (f) A person may not be assigned to conduct an investigation if the person is the complainant, the ultimate decision-maker regarding disciplinary action, or a person who has any personal involvement regarding the alleged misconduct. A police officer who is the subject of an investigation has the right to inquire and, on inquiry, to be informed of the identities of each investigator participating in an interrogation of the police officer.
- (g) Not less than 48 hours before an investigator begins the initial interrogation of a police officer who is the subject of an investigation, the investigator must inform the police officer in writing of the allegations in the complaint. An investigator may not interrogate a police officer based on complaint by a complainant who is not a police officer unless the complainant verifies the complaint in writing before a public officer who is authorized by law to take statements under oath. In an investigation under this subsection, an investigator may interrogate a police officer about events or conduct reported by a witness who is not a complainant without disclosing the name of the witness. An interrogation may be based on a complaint from an anonymous complainant if the departmental employee receiving the anonymous complaint certifies in writing, under oath, that the complaint was anonymous. This subsection does not apply to an on-the-scene investigation that occurs immediately after an incident being investigated, except that the police officer under investigation must be furnished, as soon as practicable, a written statement of the allegations in the complaint.

- (h) An interrogation session of a police officer who is the subject of an investigation may not be unreasonably long. In determining reasonableness, the gravity and complexity of the investigation must be considered. The investigators shall allow reasonable interruptions to permit the police officer to attend to personal physical necessities.
- (i) An investigator may not threaten a police officer who is the subject of an investigation with punitive action during an interrogation. An investigator may inform a police officer that the failure to answer truthfully reasonable questions directly related to the investigation or to cooperate fully in the conduct of the investigation may result in punitive action.
- (j) If prior notification of intent to record an interrogation is given to the other party, either the investigator or the police officer who is the subject of an interrogation may record the interrogation.
- (k) If an investigation does not result in punitive action against a police officer, but does result in a written reprimand or an adverse finding or determination regarding that person, the reprimand, finding, or determination may not be placed in that person's personnel file unless the police officer is first given an opportunity to read and sign the document. If the police officer refuses to sign the reprimand, finding, or determination, it may be placed in the personnel file with a notation that the person refused to sign it. A police officer may respond in writing to a reprimand, finding, or determination that is placed in the person's personnel file under this subsection by submitting a written response to the department head not later than the 10th day after the date that the police officer is asked to sign the document. The response shall be placed in the personnel file. A police officer who receives a punitive action and who elects not to appeal the action may file a written response as prescribed by this subsection not later than the 10th day after the date the person is given written notice of the punitive action from the department head.

- (l) A violation of this section may be considered by the commission or hearing examiner during a disciplinary appeal hearing if the violation substantially impaired the police officer's ability to defend against the allegations of misconduct.

Tips for you and your partners in a critical incident

1) PREPARE TODAY FOR A CRITICAL INCIDENT BY HAVING IT CLEAR IN YOUR HEAD WHAT YOU HAVE A DUTY TO REPORT, AND WHAT YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO WITHHOLD UNTIL CONSULTING WITH AN ATTORNEY.

2) NEVER GIVE INFORMATION AS EXACT IF YOU ARE NOT SURE. WHEN DESCRIBING NUMBER OF SHOTS, LOCATIONS OF IMPACT WEAPONS STRIKES, LOCATIONS OF SUSPECTS ETC. ALWAYS MAKE IT CLEAR THAT THIS IS AN APPROXIMATE GUESS. DO NOT GET LOCKED INTO SOMETHING DEFINITE UNLESS YOU ARE ABSOLUTELY SURE. EVEN IF SURE, GIVE YOURSELF ROOM FOR ERROR. YOU JUST SURVIVED A DEADLY ENCOUNTER AND YOUR BRAIN IS NOT FUNCTIONING AT NORMAL LEVELS.

3) NEVER GET SUCKED INTO AGREEING WITH A QUESTION; EXAMPLE "SO YOU WERE ABOUT FOUR FEET FROM THE SUSPECT?" BE CAREFUL ON THESE. SEE RULE NUMBER 2 ABOVE. PUT ANSWERS IN YOUR WORDS, NOT THEIRS.

4) LOOK OUT FOR YOUR FELLOW OFFICER.... IF YOUR PARTNER ON A CALL HAS JUST BEEN INVOLVED IN A CRITICAL INCIDENT, TRY TO REMIND HIM/HER TO TAKE A BREATH, REFLECT ON WHAT HAPPENED, AND TO ONLY GIVE NECESSARY INFORMATION UNTIL THE ATTORNEY ARRIVES. MOST COPS WANT TO TALK TO EVERYONE THAT WILL LISTEN ABOUT THE DETAILS IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING AN INCIDENT. IT IS A NATURAL HUMAN RESPONSE, BUT IT MUST BE CONTROLLED, AND YOU CAN DO YOUR PARTNER A HUGE FAVOR BY HELPING WITH THAT CONTROL

5) MAKE SURE THAT THERE IS AN UNDERSTANDING AMONG ALL THOSE THAT YOU WORK WITH THAT SOMEONE WILL CALL THE APA AND AN ATTORNEY IF YOU ARE EVER INVOLVED IN A CRITICAL INCIDENT. PLAN NOW, BECAUSE AT THE TIME, THESE THINGS SOMETIMES DON'T HAPPEN.
