Description:

On September 20-21, 2010, CLEAT will be sponsoring a 2-day seminar presented by Calibre Press. Calibre Press will present a dynamic, two day Street Survival Seminar in the McAllen, TX. Don't miss this opportunity to attend the most riveting and eye opening experience available in Law Enforcement training today.

For 30 years the Calibre Press "Street Survival" seminar has been the ultimate police training experience. A dynamic team of police trainers will keep you on the edge of your seat for the entire two days. The Street Survival seminar will motivate, inspire, and teach officers not only to survive but to WIN! TCLEOSE credit will be available and reported by the Pharr Police Department.

The Street Survival Seminar will help you:

- Develop the values, inner strength & winning mind-set you need to keep yourself motivated, effective and safe on the street.
- Gain valuable insight into new less-lethal options available to you.
- Learn to use crisis rehearsal and mental preparation strategies to prepare yourself for virtually any situation you may face on the job...or off.
- Prepare yourself and your family to take immediate, potentially life-saving action during an unexpected off-duty encounter.
- Overcome the "routine" nature of the job and avoid one of the deadliest enemies in law enforcement: Complacency.
- Navigate the frustrations of working within a bureaucracy & the stress of working your beat.
- Develop the perceptive skills needed to effectively hunt terrorists in your own back yard.
- Gain the mental edge you need to survive and WIN.
